

Archived N-The-Know Webcasts detailed

Collaboration Between Career Services and Disability Services - Sarah Helm, Presenter

The potential roles of both the Disability Services and Career Services offices in providing specific career-related assistance to students with disabilities, as well as, best practices, strategies and possible solutions for successful collaboration in meeting the needs of college students with disabilities will be discussed.

Disclosure, Self-Advocacy and Accommodations - Alan Muir and Sarah Helm, Presenters

Examples will be provided of how students with disabilities can build self-advocacy and the skills needed for successful workplace disclosure including the difference between disclosure in higher education and employment.

Disclosure - Apparent vs. Non-Apparent Disabilities - Alan Muir and Sarah Helm, Presenters

A comparison of the disclosure process for both apparent and non-apparent disabilities will be illustrated through case studies.

Experiential Education - Alan Muir, Presenter

Highlights of the unique benefits of Experiential Education for students with disabilities through programs such as COSD Career Gateway, Disability Mentoring Day, Emerging Leaders and the Workforce Recruitment Program will be presented.